A Word from Management

“An institution is an abode away from home that caters to the holistic development of an individual, through care, guidance and discipline. The society of the Oblates of Sacred Heart envisages this objective in every realm of its works to the best of our ability. The oft-neglected but most needed spiritual assistance is well knitted in to the curriculum.”

S.H. Public School envisions itself as

- ✓ A community of scholars
- ✓ Enlivened by Christian inspiration
- ✓ Engaged in the pursuit of true values in life
- ✓ Serving society through community service
- ✓ Able to communicate effectively with people from different parts of the globe and to participate in globalization
